Re: Submission on the Draft Clonmel Local Area Plan2024 - 2030 - Economic Development Strategy 4.0

I wish to make a submission regarding the Economic Development Section of the Draft Plan. Firstly, I would like if Tipperary University Hospital could be named as a major employer in the town alongside the other companies that have been named in this section of the draft plan. Last May Minister for Health Stephen Donnelly sanctioned a further €75 million for the hospital so this investment will again generate a further significant amount of jobs when rolled out.

Secondly, I would ask that reference would be made in different sections of this draft plan including this section to
